✓ How to Determine Your Exact Allowance

The most accurate way to confirm your baggage allowance and fees is by checking the official American Airlines website or your flight itinerary as the rules can be highly specific.

How many bags are you allowed for free on American Airlines?

The number of free bags you are allowed on American Airlines depends heavily on your destination, your fare class and whether you have elite status or a co-branded credit card.

However, for most passengers the following rules apply for free carry-on baggage:

- You are generally allowed one free carry-on bag (must fit in the overhead bin) PLUS one free personal item (must fit under the seat in front of you) on all American Airlines flights including Basic Economy.

For free checked baggage the rules are much more varied:

- Domestic U.S. Flights (including Puerto Rico and U.S. Virgin Islands):
 - Basic Economy and Main Cabin generally do not include a free checked bag. A fee applies for the first checked bag (e.g. typically $35 - $40 if purchased online/at the airport).
 - First Class, Business Class and Premium Economy passengers usually get two or more checked bags for free.
- International Flights (Transatlantic, Transpacific and certain others):
 - Main Cabin and higher fares often include one free checked bag (or sometimes two) depending on the specific route (e.g. flights to Europe often include one free checked bag in Main Cabin).
 - Basic Economy may not include a free checked bag even on international routes.

You can often get a free checked bag if you are:

- Flying in a premium cabin (First, Business or Premium Economy).
- An AAdvantage elite status member (Gold, Platinum or Executive Platinum).

- A qualifying AAdvantage credit card holder (usually offering a free first checked bag on domestic itineraries+1*866*579*8033.
- Traveling on a specific international route that includes a free checked bag for your fare type.

To get the most accurate answer+1*888*415*1245 I recommend checking the American Airlines official baggage calculator using your specific itinerary (route+1*888*415*1245 fare type+1*888*415*1245 and status+1*866*579*8033.

What is my baggage allowance on American Airlines?
