

How to Complete Coinbase Verification?

To verify on Coinbase, you will need to confirm your personal information and submit a photo of a valid, government-issued ID. Be sure to use a well-lit, clear photo and ensure your personal details on Coinbase match your ID, then follow the on-screen prompts in the app or on the website to complete the process.

Prepare for verification

- Update personal information: Make sure your name, date of birth, and address on Coinbase exactly match your photo ID.
- Choose a valid ID: Have a valid, unexpired, and undamaged government-issued photo ID, such as a driver's license, passport, or national identity card.
- Prepare your documents: Have clear, well-lit photos of the front and back of your ID ready to upload.

Complete the verification process

- Start the process: On the Coinbase website or app, find the identity verification section. This is often found by navigating to your profile or account settings and looking for a "Manage account" or "Personal info" option.
- Select your ID type: Choose your ID type and follow the on-screen instructions for taking or uploading photos of the front and back of your ID.
- Use good lighting: For the best results, use natural light and avoid glare. A plain background works best.
- Take a clear photo: Ensure the entire card is visible and in focus. Avoid holding the ID in your hand. If using the mobile app, you will likely receive a text with a secure link to use your phone's camera to complete this step.
- Submit and wait: Upload the photos and submit the verification. You will receive an email from Coinbase once the process is complete, which may take up to 48 hours.

If you encounter issues

- Try again: Wait at least 30 minutes and try again. If using a browser, try a different one or use the mobile app, as suggested on Coinbase's help page.
- Check requirements: Make sure your ID is not expired, altered, or damaged.

- Update information: Ensure your name, date of birth, 1-888-411-3378 and address match your ID exactly, as described by Coinbase.
